JUST IN TIME.

Some Norway People May Wait Till It's Too Late.

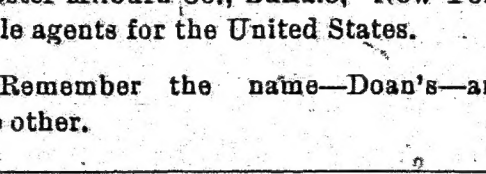

Don't wait until too late. Be sure to be in time. Just in time with kidney pills. Means curing the back. Before backache becomes chronic. Before serious urinary troubles set in.

Doan's Kidney Pills will do this. Here is testimony to prove it.

Irving Merrill, Pleasant St., South Paris, Me., says: "A few months ago I began to suffer from pains in the small of my back. After being in a stooped position for any length of time I found it difficult to straighten. The pain and lameness clung to me for some time and when I saw that the kidney secretions were unnatural and irregular in passage, I decided that my kidneys were affected. I then procured Doan's Kidney Pills and after taking the contents of three boxes, the pain disappeared, together with the kidney difficulty. I heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to any person suffering from disordered kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and no other.

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Inc., 501 North Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wescott are boarding with Mr. and Mrs. George Quint.

Mrs. Archie McDaniel of Kezar Falls made a short call on Mrs. Bessie Stearns, Sunday.

We understand that Rev. James Perry of Corolla suffered a slight shock a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Stanley and Mrs. Mary Clemons were visitors, Sunday, at John Spring's.

Francois Gilpatrick, who has logging at North Parsonsfield, has been home sick with a bad cold.

Elmer Davis of Bonny Eagle called on Mrs. Sally Libby, who is very low and not expected to recover.

Mrs. Wyman Libby from Somerville, Mass., is here helping care for Mr. Libby's mother, who is very low.

The remains of Henry Stanley, who has been working in Cambridge, Mass., were brought here for burial, Tuesday.

Frank Gilpatrick and family have moved home. He has been working at North Parsonsfield in the woods this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Quint, who have been spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Kilgore, at South Windham, returned home, Saturday.

There were quite a number from this place attended the funeral of John Stanley, which was held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mattie Holter, March 3, at Kezar Falls. Comforting words were spoken by Rev. William Cotton of Waterboro, assisted by Rev. Fred Ward and Rev. H. H. Richardson.

Mrs. John Seavey was buried March 4, for her late residence. She has been a great sufferer for a long time, having had both feet amputated. A short time ago she had a shock from which she never recovered. Comforting words were spoken by Rev. Mr. Long, the Advent minister of this place.

EAST SUMMER.

At the Masquerade.
"A very good time at the Masquerade social," was the verdict pronounced by the young people who attended the social at the Congregational vestry Friday, March 10.
Some of the costumes were very good, especially the one worn by Helen Tucker who dressed as an old fashioned girl in a silk dress which was worn as a wedding dress, sixty years ago.
Some of the other costumes were an Indian squaw, two Shaker ladies (which were represented by W. H. Eastman and Esther Eastman), a nurse, an operatic star, Night, a baby. There were three ghosts, two Red Riding Hoods, two Liberties, a fairy queen, a tramp, a chauffeur, an aged man, a fat man, a fisherman, two clowns, a Turk, and several who wore masks but did not dress any particular part. The greater part of those present did not mask at all. Ice cream, cake and home-made candy, were on sale during the evening.

BRYANT POND.

K. of P. Concert, Drill and Ball.
The Annual K. of P. concert, drill and ball which was held here Mar. 3, was a grand success socially and financially. This is the second annual ball held under the auspices of Mt. Christopher Company No. 41, and it is the present plan to hold them each year, making them the great social event of the year at Bryant Pond. Dudley Opera House was prettily decorated with red, white and blue streamers and flags, and the music, which was furnished by Perry & Hobbs' orchestra of Lewiston, was all that good music lovers could desire.

The orchestra gave a concert for about an hour, then came the drill by the company under the direction of Capt. Fred M. Cole which showed careful training and was much appreciated by all. At 9.30 the grand march was formed with between 75 and 80 couples on the floor. It was in the small hours of morning when the good night waltz was played and the crowd returned to their homes feeling that they had enjoyed one of the nicest and best times ever held at Bryant Pond.

Louis Libby is chopping for Ralph M. Bacon.

George McKenney and wife visited in Turner, Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Charles Walker of Harrison spent Sunday with her father, G. A. Whitman.

Allen and Lester Hathaway are bound to do a little farming during their vacation from High school and have commenced hauling out dressing.

The crows have come and are holding their daily concert and caucuses throughout the different sections of the town. Judging from the excitement among them at these caucuses we can but believe that they are discussing the Canadian Reciprocity Bill.

The annual report of the town shows that the officers of the town have been well managed during the past year. Resources are given as $3,279.81, liabilities $666.84, leaving a balance in favor of the town of $2,612.97. Of this amount $2,436.21 is cash in the treasury, while only $176.76 is left in outstanding bills and orders. We doubt very much if any town in Oxford County can make a better showing financially than the good old town of Woodstock.

Town meeting passed off very quietly here and was probably one of the most harmonious Woodstock has ever held. There was some discussion over the article in the warrant to see if the town would vote to build an iron bridge over stream near Ralph M. Bacon's place. It was decided that a new bridge must be built, but the matter was left with the road commissioner to decide whether it should be wood or iron. An informal vote was taken which showed that a majority of the voters considered an iron bridge the most economical for the town.

Nearly one-third of the population are ill with the grip.

D. A. Cole, mail carrier on Route 1, will leave this week for Boston on a few days' vacation.

Wonderful Praise Accorded Peruna the Household Remedy

Mrs. Maria Goertz, Orienta, Oklahoma, writes:

"My husband, children and myself have used your medicines, and we always keep them in the house in case of necessity. I was restored to health by this medicine, and Dr. Hartman's invaluable advice and books. People ask about me from different places, and are surprised that I can do all of my household work alone, and that I was cured by the doctor of chronic catarrh. My husband was cured of asthma, my daughter of earache and catarrh of the stomach, and my son of catarrh of the throat. When I was sick I weighed 100 pounds; now I weigh 140.

"I have regained my health again, and I cannot thank you enough for your advice. May God give you a long life and bless your work."

Mrs. Ann Estes.
Mrs. Ann Andrews-Ellingwood-Estes died at her late home on Pioneer street last Saturday night, March 11. Mrs. Estes, who has been in poor health for some time, could not endure an attack of pneumonia. She was sick about a week and the fever was gradually leaving when typhoid symptoms set in. She was born in Norway, and was a little more than 75 years old.

She was one of a large family of children of Rev. Zibi and Thankful Andrews, three of whom survive her, Rev. John Andrews of Utah, Mrs. Lizzie Carlson and Mrs. Charlotte Benson of California. Mrs. Estes' sister Rachel, wife of Samuel W. Dunham of this place, and brother, Isaac W. Andrews of South Woodstock, have died within the past year.

She became the wife of Oscar P. Ellingwood when quite a young woman. To them were given one daughter and three sons; Edith, wife of late Christian Washburn, now deceased, mother of Mrs. Grace Stevens of North Paris; George Ellingwood of Chicago, Ill.; Charles of Georgia; and Arthur in Niagara, N. Y. None of her children, brother or sisters could be here during her sickness or funeral.

Mr. Ellingwood died at his home at Troy Corners in the spring of 1901. In March, 1903, she married Samuel K. Estes and they bought a lot of land opposite Mann's mill on Pioneer street and built the house where they lived happily in their new home until their final separation.

Mrs. Estes was a Christian and she with her husband together enjoyed the services at the Methodist church, whenever weather and health permitted. Mr. Estes for the third time is left alone without a companion and the time his declining years will be often sad and lonely. He has two daughters and two sons who will now be his comforters.

NORWAY AND VICINITY

The county commissioners have accepted the new municipal court room. The building is now nearly ready to be turned over to the tenants. The new court room will be a very convenient and attractive room. The view from the windows is out to Pike's Hill.

Beryl Foster was given a reception shopmates and friends, Monday evening, March 21st, at the home of her sister Mrs. Winfield Allen at South Paris. During the evening light refreshments consisting of punch, ice cream and far crackers were served. Master Dr. Allen in behalf of the girls in the sitting room presented Beryl with a fine opal ring. A large number of guests were present and a delightful evening enjoyed. Miss Foster accepted the position of assistant faculty with the Berry Shoe Co. of Portland and will leave for there in a few days. The company departed at a late hour and all were united in wishing Beryl success and happiness in her new field of labor.

Mildred and Roulere. Monday evening, Mildred and Roulere, the world toured absolute masters of mysteries, presented an excellent, even ng's entertainment at Opera House, with a fair sized audience present.

Roulere is an artist in the art of mystifying an audience, and causing illusions and deceptions to pre throughout the evening. Among astonishing surprises were, My Little Kimono, The Arrival of Roulere, Modern Miracles, Fantastical Race, The Clown and the Bear, and a Daughter of Uncle Sam.

Among many tricks was the selection of several cards by members of the audience, and as the missing card was called for, it rose from the pack on the stage. The fourth one torn up and one piece retained, but rolled the missing card from a cigar 20-center, with the piece missing.

From a bottle he turned some water and upon request turned white "spirits" was desired and upon returning to the stage broke the bottle and came a guinea pig with the ring he borrowed from the audience about neck.

There were tricks of all kinds w handkerchiefs, money made to come from all sources and in fact a hundred and one slight of hand tricks.

Mildred Roulere, "the Bewilder Star of Mystery, gave an excellent exhibition of telepathic senses. She blindfolded the audience and Roulere passed through the audience different ones told him their names. She would tell them their names, whatever question they were think about, and answer the same.

Roulere then put her to sleep, and passed around the audience and different ones told him something they wanted to do, and returning to the stage, pointed to the first one and Mildred went to the board and wrote the thing pointed to the second, the immediate answer, the next she bunted up a man on the floor and returned it to the owner and for another picked up a box of candy and counted out six pieces and returned the box, etc.

Among other specialties was the "King Generation," which was in the form of a man who came upon the stage, keeping time to the music gradually grew from a man of about five feet one over eight. Several solos were sung by Mildred Roulere, Jr., and Minnie and the Maid, Williams & Miss Melburn caused no limited amount of merriment by their songs and gestures.

The last act was the flight of Prince Tit. She came on and brought out a person wrapped in a sheet, another wrapped in a red cloth, Roulere also brought out two from the cage where apparently no one was. Roulere and Mildred both entered the cage and soon the doors were opened and they were there. The wrapping was taken from these people which they brought to the stage from the cage and there stood Mildred and Roulere wrapped in the covering. How they it—you tell.

"The Flaming Arrow"

That beautiful scenic production the west, as it really was in the early days in the vicinity of Fort Reno with the Indians were being most frequently and the United States soldiers were ever on alert, "The Flaming Arrow" will be presented at Norway Opera House on Monday evening, March 20th. Although at first sight one would expect a play full of blood and thund it is not so, being devoid of this, a coat evictions and other stereotypical features.

The plot is consistent and natural developed; comedy and pathos are terminated in a pleasing manner, and each act has a surprising and effective climax. The electrical and scenic effects are marvelous, in fact noncomparable.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The official Government tests show Royal Baking Powder to be an absolutely pure and healthful grape cream of tartar baking powder, and care should be taken to prevent the substitution of any other brand in its place.

With no other agent can biscuit, cake and hot-breads be made so pure, healthful and delicious.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price per pound, and is cheaper and better at its price than any other baking powder in the world. It makes pure, clean, healthful food.

Mrs. Ann Andrews-Ellingwood-Estes died at her late home on Pioneer street last Saturday night, March 11. Mrs. Estes, who has been in poor health for some time, could not endure an attack of pneumonia. She was sick about a week and the fever was gradually leaving when typhoid symptoms set in. She was born Feb. 26, 1836, making her a little more than 75 years old.

She was one of a large family of children of Rev. Zibi and Thankful Andrews, three of whom survive her, Rev. John Andrews of Utah, Mrs. Lizzie Carlton and Mrs. Charlotte Benson of California. Mrs. Estes' sister Rachel, wife of Samuel W. Dunham of this place, and brother, Isaac W. Andrews of South Woodstock, have died within the past year.

She became the wife of Oscar P. Ellingwood when quite a young woman. To them were born one daughter and three sons; Edith, wife of late Christian Washburn, now deceased, mother of Mrs. Grace Stevens of North Paris; George Ellingwood of Chicago, Ill.; Charles of Georgia; and Arthur in Niagara, N. Y. None of her children, brother or sisters could be here during her sickness or funeral.

Mr. Ellingwood died at his home at Trap Corner, in the spring of 1901. In March, 1903, she married Samuel K. Estes and they bought a lot of land opposite Mann's mill on Pioneer street and built the house where they lived happily in their new home until their final separation.

Mrs. Estes was a Christian and she with her husband together enjoyed the services at the Methodist church, whenever weather and health permitted. Mrs. Estes for the third time is left alone without a companion and this time her declining years will be often sad and lonely. She has two daughters and two sons who will now be her comforters.

Mildred and Ronclere Monday evening. Mildred Ronclere, the world toured masters of mysteries, presents excellent even mg's entertainment. Opera House, with a fair sized present. Ronclere is an artist in the mystery, an audience and illusions and deceptive throughout the evening. A astonishing surprises were, Kimono, The Arrival of Modern Miracles, Fantastical The Clown and the Bear, and ter of Uncle Sam. Among many tricks was the of several cards by members audience, and as the missing card was called for it rose back on the stage. The Monday toro up and one piece retained, rolled the missing card from a 20-center, with the piece missing. From a bottle he turned out and upon request turned out "spirits" was desired, and in the ing to the stage broke the bottle came a gunnes pig with the borrowed from the audience's neck. There were tricks of all kinds handkerchiefs, money made from all sources and in fact a and one slight of hand tricks. Mildred Ronclere, "the Be Star of Mystery, gave an exhibition of telepathic seances, blindfolded on the stage. Ronclere passed through the different ones told him that she would tell them their names whatever question they were about, and answer the same. Ronclere went out her to sleep, passed around the audience and ones told him something they her to do, and returning to the pointed to the first one and went to the board and wrote a pointing to the second, she danced; the next she hunched up on the floor and returned it to and for another picked up a candy and counted out six returned the box, etc. Among other specialties was ing Generation, which was in of a man who came upon the keeping time to the music grew from a man of about five one over eight. Several solos by Mildred Ronclere, J. R. Minstral and the Maid, William Melburn caused no limited of merriment by their so gestures. The last act was the flight of Iris. She entered the stage and a person wrapped in a sh another wrapped in a red cloth, also brought out two from t where apparently no one was. and Mildred both entered the soon the doors were opened and was there. The wrapping was from these people which brought to the stage from the there stood Mildred and wrapped in the covering. How it—you tell.

"The Flaming Arrow" That beautiful scenic production, the west, as it really was in days in the vicinity of Fort Reno the Indians were winning most pricing and the United States were ever on alert. "The Flaming Arrow" will be presented at Norway House on Monday evening, March 20th. Although at first thought one respect a play full of blood and it is not so, being devoid of the coat evictions and other stage features. The plot is consistent and developed; comedy and action terminating in a pleasing manner each act has a surprising and climax. The electrical and effects are marvelous, in fact not able.
